

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

The Year Long Bible Journey Judges

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: JUDGES

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

This week we learned about how God used a simple guy like Gideon to be a hero. All he had to do was obey. When he chose that, he was able to lead the Israelites in winning a battle against their enemies. Judges 6:7-24; Gideon Saves Israel

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Talk about what God might be calling you to do with His help. Heroes can look a lot of different ways. It may be doing something to help an elderly neighbor. It could be inviting a friend to church.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Who is your favorite superhero and why?
- Who is someone you know that is a hero to you?
- How can regular people be heroes with God's help?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Never stop reading this Book of the Law. Day and night you must think about what it says. Make sure you do everything written in it. Then things will go well with you. And you will have great success." Joshua 1:8 (NIRV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know: Sometimes kids think they can't accomplish much because they are little or young. Be an encourager to your child this week. Help them to know they can do big and great things when God works through them.

Challenge: read the rest of the story about Gideon with your child. Judges 6:33-40 tells about how Gideon asked God for more signs. Judges 7 tells about how God helped Gideon and His army win the battle.
